
Within-model changes; a positive value denotes improvement in the stated metric. Different adaptation regimes were used.